Welcome aboard the eduroam

Your download will start showing

Dear user from NCSR DEMOKRITOS

We would like to warmly welcome you among the several million users of eduroam@! From now on, you will be able to use internet access resources on thousands of universities, research centres and other places all over the globe. All of this completely free of charge!

Now that you have downloaded and installed a client configurator, all you need to do is find an eduroam@ hotspot in your vicinity and enter your user credentials (this is our fancy name for 'username and password' or 'personal certificate') - and be online!

Should you have any problems using this service, please always contact the helpdesk of NCSR DEMOKRITOS. They will diagnose the problem and help you out. You can reach them via the means shown above.

The image displays a sequence of windows from the eduroam installer for NCSR DEMOKRITOS. The main window shows a welcome message and a "Next >" button. A URL <https://cat.eduroam.org> is visible at the bottom. A dialog box asks for confirmation to continue, with an "OK" button. Another dialog box asks "Do you want to enable access on wired interfaces?", with the "No" button highlighted in green. The "User credentials" window shows the username "harisk@iit.demokritos.g" and masked password fields. The "Installation" window shows progress bars and logs for certificate extraction. The final window displays "Installation complete" and "Your system is ready." with a "Finish" button. A URL <https://cat.eduroam.org> is also present at the bottom of the final window.
